Beloved in Christ,

For a long time, I have had the goal in mind of inviting as many of you as possible into praying the daily offices (Morning and Evening Prayer) and reading the whole witness of scripture. This year, we are introducing a reading plan, which includes some instruction on how to study the Bible, a comprehensive reading plan that will bring us through approximately half of the Old Testament and the entire New Testament one time.

This plan can be used one of two ways – you can do all the reading in the morning or evening, or you can do one reading in the morning one in the evening. My plan is to read on my own in the morning and do the evening one with my family, but you can adjust for what works best for you.

Our hope is to introduce you to the whole witness of scripture and emphasize the importance of worship in our daily lives. The lessons come from the M'Cheyne Reading Plan. Morning and Evening prayer are a truncated version of the 1928 prayer book Daily Offices.

Finally, our music director, Elizabeth, has compiled a list of hymns which can be sung at home as a family. We have many worn hymnals that will not be used in our pews but are great for family worship. Please ask for one or two for your home.

Some additional thoughts:

1. Read the “how to study the Bible” section.
2. Do not fret if you fall behind, just keep reading.
3. The end goal isn’t to be able to brag about having read so much – it is to know God better. So, take your time.
4. Remember our call is to: “hear scripture, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest” it. In other words: read it out loud, study it deeply, memorize it, and meditate upon it.
5. It’s okay if this reading plan isn’t right for you – there is no one size fits all approach to the Word of God. This is simply a guide. If you need help finding a plan that will “fit you” talk to Fr. Ian or someone else in the parish for help.

It is our prayer – our church would continue to grow in the love and knowledge of God and that we would be a faithful witness here in the quad-city area to the goodness and grace of His son Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Tradition One-Month Psalm Cycle

How to pray the Psalter

There are a few manners in which you can pray the Psalms. For simplicity's sake we only provided you with one version. In the version on the next page, you will be given a handful of Psalms for morning and evening. If you follow this schedule you will pray the whole Psalter every month (except for February). You will simply pray the Psalms that are listed for that day of the month. On Months that have 31 days, you return to The Twenty-Seventh Day and pray those Psalms again.

I would recommend this way, but if you need to split the Psalms into smaller portions, you can do so by either reading a single Psalm at Morning or Evening Prayer, or by splitting up the days Psalms so you do the Morning Psalms one day and the Evening Psalms the following day.

You will also notice that later in the year some of the second readings are from the Psalter. In this case, read the Psalms as you would read any other text, do not simply pray them but study them and meditate upon them.

How to Study the Bible

1. Start with prayer: ask God to give you wisdom about this passage and that He would minister to you through His word.
2. Meditate upon his word: If time allows, read the passage multiple times, allow yourself to sit with what God is saying.
3. Consider context:
  - a.) Who was the original audience for this passage?
  - b.) What is going on in their community when this passage was written?
  - c.) What is the literary context? (what comes right before this? What about after it?)
  - d.) Are there any connections to other parts of scripture?
  - e.) What does this teach us about the nature of God?
  - f.) What does it teach us about human nature?
4. Live the Word:
  - a.) What does this passage mean for today?
  - b.) How should I respond? How is God using this passage in my life today?
5. You may wish to keep a journal with your Bible and this booklet. This will allow you to write down your thoughts, and process it in another way.

Memorizing Scripture

For many of you, it may be foreign to memorize scripture. However, I want to encourage you to give it a try. A professor of mine once said that “by memorizing scripture, we give the Holy Spirit a voice.” The memorized word of God can be encouraging to us, help us stay grounded, and keep us focused on the labor for the kingdom. There are several ways you can memorize scripture. You can write it down on a sticky note or a card, so you can read it over and over again, or just refer back to it. Either way, I want to encourage you to try to develop the habit of making God’s word internal to your mind and heart.

The Daily Offices

In the Anglican tradition our worship is guided by the Book of Common Prayer. At All Saints we use the 1928 American Book of Common Prayer. We have truncated Morning and Evening Prayer, but the structure is still similar to what we pray when we gather for worship during the week.

The daily offices are particularly important because they remind us of our need for Christ. They are rich in scripture, remind us to come before our Lord and confess our sins, the promise of forgiveness is given in Christ.

Morning Prayer

Opening sentence: THE LORD is in his holy temple: let all the earth keep silence before him. Hab. ii. 20.

Leader: Let us humbly confess our sins unto Almighty God

A General Confession (In Unison):

ALMIGHTY and most merciful Father; We have erred, and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; And we have done those things which we ought not to have done; And there is no health in us. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare thou those, O God, who confess their faults. Restore thou those who are penitent; According to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake; That we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, To the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

Silence for reflection/personal confession unto God.

The Collect for Trinity XXI (In Unison)

GRANT, we beseech thee, merciful Lord, to thy faithful people pardon and peace, that they may be cleansed from all their sins, and serve thee with a quiet mind; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer (In Unison)

OUR Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Pray the Psalms for Morning Prayer (see morning lesson for the day)

After each Psalm Pray:

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost* As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be world without end. Amen.

Read the morning lesson.

See Pg 8 for study notes.

Pray the Jubilate Deo. Psalm c. (In Unison)

O BE joyful in the LORD, all ye lands: * serve the LORD with gladness, and come before his presence with a song. Be ye sure that the LORD he is God; it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; * we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture. O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise; * be thankful unto him, and speak good of his Name. For the LORD is gracious, his mercy is everlasting; * and his truth endureth from generation to generation.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost* As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be world without end. Amen.

Recite the Apostles Creed (Unison)

I BELIEVE in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth: And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord: Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, Born of the Virgin Mary: Suffered under Pontius Pilate, Was crucified, dead, and buried: He descended into hell; The third day he rose again from the dead: He ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty: From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost: The holy Catholic Church; The Communion of Saints: The Forgiveness of sins: The Resurrection of the body; And the Life everlasting. Amen.

Amen.

Magnificat. St. Luke i. 46. (in Unison)

MY soul doth magnify the Lord, * and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour. For he hath regarded * the lowliness of his handmaiden. For behold, from henceforth * all generations shall call me blessed. For he that is mighty hath magnified me; * and holy is his Name. And his mercy is on them that fear him * throughout all generations. He hath showed strength with his arm; * he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts. He hath put down the mighty from their seat, * and hath exalted the humble and meek. He hath filled the hungry with good things; * and the rich he hath sent empty away. He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel; * as he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed, for ever.
